

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The successful completion of this program leads to the Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree. The MBA diploma is granted as a dual-degree issued by the European Business School (CH) and John F. Kennedy University (US).

The European JFKU MBA is the educational boost to your business career in an international environment. The program content lets participants step into an active role as leaders or entrepreneurs in today's complex and fast-moving business world.

Applicants must hold a BBA or another equivalent 1st academic degree in general management or business administration with a minimum of 180 ECTS-credits.

